

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, October, 1. 1702.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Octob. 5.

Venice, September 22.

THE King of Spain will go to Guastala, and lodg in the Duke's Palace, which escap'd being damag'd by the Bombs. Count Solari would have stipulated in the Capitulation, That the Sovereignty of Guastala should remain in the Duke of that Name; but the French would not yield to it. When Count Solari in his March to Trent pas'd over the Bridg of Luzara, he had great Honour done him by the French. The 300 sick and wounded Imperialists of the Garrison of Guastala are to be conducted to the Camp of Prince Eugene, and are oblig'd to go to Trent as soon as they are able. The Duke of Mantua is made Duke of Guastala.

From the Amsterdam Courant, Dated Octob. 5.

Paris, Sept. 29. Monsieur de Ferriere Captain of the Eolus, a Man of War of 64 Guns, came into Brest on the 22d inst. who reports that he came from the West Indies with Count Chateauregnault, and that the rest of the Squadron are not far behind him.

Lisle, Oct. 1. They write from Brest of the 23d ult. that Count Chateauregnault with the Plate Fleet was expected there every hour; a Ship of 60 Guns, that was detached before by the Count, having brought Advice. that they were on the French Coast. P. S. Letters from Paris of the 29th ult. say, that the French Squadron was come before Brest, having carried the Spanish Flota into the Groyne, or into St. Andero.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Octob. 5.

Amsterdam, Oct. 4. 'Tis advis'd from Nantes, that the French Man of War, which is arriv'd at Brest, left Count Chateauregnault's Squadron before the Groyne.

From the Amsterdam Courant, Dated Octob. 7.

Amsterdam, Oct. 6. They write from Madrid that a Ship richly laden was arriv'd at St. Lucar; that she came out with the Fleet from New Spain, and was separated from the rest by a Storm as they were coming out of the Streights of Bahama.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 5.

From the French Camp at Luzara, Sept. 19. The Walls and Gates of Luzara are undermin'd, but Guastala will be fortified. 'Tis said a Detachment will be sent to besiege Mirandola, and that a Line will be drawn to block up Bersello. 'Tis reported likewise that a considerable Detachment will be sent to Germany, which will be supply'd by some Troops of Savoy, 4000 men from Naples, and 3000 Swis. Lieutenant General Zurlauben lies sick of a Fever in Mantua.

Marseilles, Sept. 20. This morning the 6 French Gallies, that were at Naples, return'd into this Harbour, with 300 Troopers and a great number of Foot Soldiers and Seamen sick, who will be put into the Hospitals.

Paris, Sept. 29. 'Tis said that the Emperor will not give the Marshal Villeroy his Liberty, till some Neapolitan Noblemen are delivered up. The Marquels de Varennes will not be set at liberty neither, till the Campaign is ended; the Enemy being apprehensive that during his Confinement in Frankfort he may have got Information of their Designs.

Venice, Sept. 23. The last Letters from Italy left the Armys in their former Posts; the French being abour 36000 strong, had detached some Troops to invest Mirandola, the Garrison of which Place is reinforc'd by the Wolfenbuttelers that arriv'd lately, who took along with them 200 Waggons loaded with Ammunition and Provisions. The Imperialists had sent out a strong Detachment to intercept a Convoy of Provisions that were coming out of the Veronese to Mantua under the Guard of 1500 Spanish Horse; but the French having notice of it, the Design was frustrated.

Basil, Sept. 27. To morrow a General Diet of the Cantons will be held at Baden, in which it is expected that the Imperial Envoy will explain himself concerning his Renunciation of the Hereditary Alliance between the Emperor and the Swiss Cantons, viz. that this Renunciation shall be of force only against those Cantons that are for renewing the Milanese Capitulation with the Duke of Anjou.

Hamburg, Oct. 3. 'Tis advis'd from Poland that there is greater hopes of a Peace than ever, and that the King of Sweden has accepted the Mediation of the Republick. They write from Lemberg, That the Tartars were come over the Boristhenes, and that the Turks had declar'd War against the Muscovites; but this requires Confirmation.

Dantzick, Sept. 27. Letters that came in yesterday from Warsaw, say that the King of Poland is at present in that City; and that the Castle of Cracow was burnt, but 'tis not known how the Fire happen'd.

Maastricht, Oct. 4. Yesterday the French Army began to move, and 'tis said they will encamp near Harcourt between this City and Liege, and that our Army will break up this Week.

From the French Camp at Luzara, Sept. 22.

Our Forage beginning to grow scarce, we shall march towards the Sechin, which in all probability will oblige the Enemy to move likewise to cover their Bridg at Borgoforte. We talk of besieging Bersello with 14000 men.

From the Camp of the Imperialists at Luzara, Sept. 17. To day we made 3 Salvoes from all our Great and Small Shot, for the taking of Landau; and in the Evening the Enemy did the like for the taking of Ulm. We had 2 Lieutenants and 6 private Soldiers kill'd by the Enemy's Cannon, and 10 or 12 wounded; the Enemy's Loss was more considerable.

From the Harlem Courant dated Oct. 5.

Amsterdam, Oct. 4. Yesterday we had Letters that came through France of the 3d ult. from Cadiz, of the 4th from Xeres, and of the 16th from Madrid; but they bring no News; probably they dare not write any from those Parts.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Oct. 7.

Vienna Sept. 23. A Manifesto is preparing here to declare the Arch-Duke Charles King of Spain, which will be sent to the Prince of Hesse Darmstadt in Spain, to be published in that Kingdom; and the like will be sent to Naples.

Amsterdam, Oct. 6. The last Letters from Wesel say, that Rhinberg is to be besieged in a few days; to which end the Artillery will be shipp'd with all Expedition, and sent up the Rhine.
